Judicial Panel Discussion re: Recent Decisions, Federal Rule Amendments and Ethical Perspectives

This judicial roundtable will provide insight into the benches' approach to eDiscovery topics, such as cooperation among counsel, proper eDiscovery planning, review and production, computer assisted review, and appropriate sanctions awards for spoliation. The new proposed federal rule amendments will also be discussed along with ethical issues involving eDiscovery. This is a unique opportunity to hear from judicial leaders who are known for their judicial opinions on key eDiscovery topics.

Panel: Hon. Shira A. Scheindlin, U.S.D.C. Southern District of New York
Hon. Andrew J. Peck, U.S.D.C. Southern District of New York
Hon. David J. Waxse, U.S.D.C. District of Kansas
Hon. James P. O'Hara, U.S.D.C. District of Kansas
Moderator: Jonathan Sablone, Nixon Peabody LLP

3:00 PM

Snack Break sponsored by Dentons

3:15 PM

Behind the Scenes of the Proposed Federal Rule Amendments

This is a rare opportunity to hear from one of the most respected deans of the eDiscovery bar and the chair of the committee that drafted the proposed federal rule amendments, which have garnered much discussion, and, in some instances, sewing controversy. In addition to covering key proposed federal eDiscovery rule amendments, Judge Grimm will give us a behind the scenes peek at the rule making process, the controversy surrounding the rule changes, the evolution of the current proposed federal rule amendments and share his thoughts on the likelihood of passage and their ultimate implications.

Presenter: Hon. Paul W. Grimm, U.S.D.C., District of Maryland

eDiscovery Ethics

Ethical considerations in eDiscovery and social media use will be explored, including the handling of inadvertently produced data, the viewing of juror and adverse party social media accounts, "friend" requests to adversaries and the use of social media in hiring decisions.

Presenter: Ellen Y. Suni, Dean and Professor of Law, UMKC School of Law
